

English exercises 10

Monday 11/01/2020

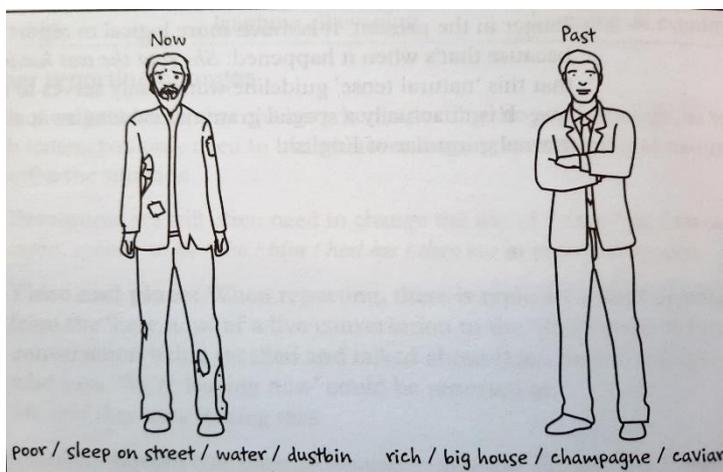

09:55 – 11:25

Student book p. 42 Remembering the past: used to + infinitive

1a. Read p. 42 and look at the table and the picture.

PAST HABITS

	Used to	Didn't use to
Past	√	X
Present	X	√

(picture from Teaching English Grammar. What to Teach and How to Teach it. Jim Scrivener. Macmillan Books for Teachers, 2010. p. 260)

This is Emil. Emil's life has changed immensely.

NOW: He's poor. He sleeps on the street. He only drinks water. He eats food from dustbins

PAST: He was rich. He had a big house. He drank champagne. He ate caviar.

1b. Explain how we use the forms "used to" and "didn't use to" with the example of Emil.

2. Look at the sentences below and answer the questions in short:

1. Jan used to study in Frankfurt.

Does Jan study in Frankfurt now?

Did Jan study in Frankfurt in the past?

2. Evelyn didn't use to like olives but she does now.

Does Sam like olives now?

Did she like Olives in the past?

3. People used to go to restaurants to meet friends.

Do they go to restaurants now?

How often did they go to restaurants?

3. Look at the example and complete the sentence below:

I used to read anime, but I don't have time anymore.

“Used to” talks about a _____ from the past to the present.

4. Write 6 sentences about habits that you used to have or didn't use to have when you were a child.

Thursday 14/01/2020

08:15 – 09:40

1. Student book p. 43: Read the text A campaigner for human rights and summarise the text in a few sentences.

2. WB p. 31 number 16 Reading A child hero: Read the text and answer the questions 1-3.

3. Write 6 sentences about Iqbal using “used to” and “didn't use to”.

4. Find out about an organisation that deals with human rights violations and present it in a small text (100 words). Make sure to include why you chose that specific organisation. Mind the language of your text.

5. p. 44. number 2 We need jobs Revision future forms (will-future, going to, present continuous): Complete the sentences using the correct verb from the box and the correct future form.